

IM Physicians Seeking Work/Life Balance - Join Us at Tufts Medical Center & Tufts Medical Center Community Care - Multiple Positions

Tufts Medical Center and Tufts Medical Center Community Care are seeking Internal Medicine physicians to join both our Boston based Primary Care team at the main hospital campus and our community based Primary Care teams in either Framingham, Quincy, or Wellesley, MA. We are a physician led, patient centered organization and looking to grow our department and our practices with team players dedicated to providing meaningful patient care. These positions are ideal for both those who are finishing training or those who are looking to advance their careers and make a change.

At Tufts Medical Center and Tufts Medical Center Community Care, we strive to be a people focused organization. We provide high quality care and foster a work environment that is flexible and in-tune with the desires of a modern workforce that values work/life balance. At Boston Primary Care, all of our physicians see patients between 1 and 8 clinical sessions/week, with 7 clinical sessions considered full-time for established and new physicians alike. Our faculty has supported time in many different scholarly endeavors, including public health research, education, inpatient operations, quality, and population health. Within Tufts Medical Center Community Care, our physicians see patients 4 days/week with a 5th day of protected time.

Join a clinically renowned system devoted to delivering high quality care at a lower cost to patients. We encourage and support each physician to pursue their clinical, academic and educational interests. With a large 75 person Internal Medicine residency program, a passion for teaching is essential.

As a proud member of Wellforce, we bring together providers and organizations with a shared vision of high-quality care delivered in the setting that serves our patients best. Together, Wellforce brings together the strength of both academic medicine and community care.

Join Tufts Medical Center Physician Organization in our mission to heal, to comfort, to teach, to learn and to seek knowledge to promote health and prevent disease.

As an employee of Tufts Medical Center Physician Organization you will receive:

- Guaranteed Base Salary
- Academic Appointment through Tufts University School of Medicine
- Substantive 401A retirement plan
- CME Funds and Time Away
- Generous Vacation and Holiday Policy
- Robust Benefits Package
