

General Urologist

The Department of Urology at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine seeks a full-time non-tenure-eligible Clinician-Educator up to the rank of Associate Professor who is a general urologist with the possibility that the candidate would have one sub-specialty area such as benign prostatic hyperplasia, male infertility, or oncology. Patient care responsibilities include pre-operative evaluation, intra-operative familiarity with surgical techniques, and postoperative management. In addition, the position will be involved in the education of the department's residents in training, medical students, and Physician Assistant students.

Qualified candidates will possess at least an MD degree, have completed an accredited residency in urology, and be Board certified/eligible.

The start date is negotiable and the position will remain open until filled.

When applying, please upload a CV and cover letter describing your interest and alignment with the position. Also upload this completed list of references form (<http://www.feinberg.northwestern.edu/fao/docs/admin-fac-reg-tracks/Recruitment/FSM-List-of-References-for-New-Faculty.docx>) to suggest the names of individuals who could write letters of reference on your behalf.

Please read ALL instructions and make preparations before proceeding to the application page:

- Applications will only be accepted via online submission (see link below).
- Please prepare all documents in advance as Adobe PDF files, and please be sure all information is entered correctly and accurately (especially names and email addresses), as there will be no opportunity for online revision after your application has been submitted.
- All required fields in the application form are marked with an asterisk and must be filled before clicking the "Submit" button.
- Be aware that incomplete applications cannot be saved.
