

Infectious Diseases Physician/Faculty

The Division of Infectious Diseases (ID) at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine seeks a full-time, non-tenure-eligible Clinician-Educator at the rank of Instructor or Assistant Professor. Responsibilities include helping to advance the clinical, research, and teaching mission of the division as part of Northwestern Medicine. Clinical activities will include attending on the ID inpatient and outpatient services, and other services within the ID division if needed. A strong interest/focus in HIV research, preferably premature aging and co-morbidities, is required. This scope of research may be related to any applicable field such as one or more of the following: clinical epidemiology, outcomes research, modeling, or health disparities.

Qualified candidates will hold a medical degree and be board-certified in infectious diseases. Rank and salary are commensurate with experience.

The start date is negotiable and the position will remain open until filled.

When applying, please upload a CV and cover letter describing your interest and alignment with the position. In addition, upload this completed list of references form (<http://www.feinberg.northwestern.edu/fao/docs/admin-fac-reg-tracks/Recruitment/FSM-List-of-References-for-New-Faculty.docx>) to suggest the names of individuals who could write letters of reference on your behalf.

Please read ALL instructions and make preparations before proceeding to the application page:

- Applications will only be accepted via online submission (see link below).
- Please prepare all documents in advance as Adobe PDF files, and please be sure all information is entered correctly and accurately (especially names and email addresses), as there will be no opportunity for online revision after your application has been submitted.
- All required fields in the application form are marked with an asterisk and must be filled before clicking the "Submit" button.
- Be aware that incomplete applications cannot be saved.
