

Assistant/Associate Professor In Residence

Assistant/ Associate Professor

University of California, Davis School of Medicine

Department of Family and Community Medicine

The Department of Family and Community Medicine at the University of California, Davis School of Medicine is seeking full-time candidates for a 100% academic position as an Assistant or Associate Professor In Residence at 50% and Assistant or Associate Professor at 50% in the Regular (tenure track) series. Appointees to this series are required to engage in research, teaching, patient care, and University/public service.

The successful candidate will be expected to establish or continue a significant externally funded research program within his/her area of focus, congruent with the research mission and foci of the department. The candidate will have time devoted to research, clinical care, teaching, and University/public service.

Candidates must have the following qualifications:

- MD or DO degree
- Board Certified or Board Eligible in Family Medicine
- Eligible for licensure in the State of California
- Demonstrate ability and experience to conduct scholarly/clinical research
- Recent clinical practice, including outpatient clinic
- Experience in and the ability to teach medical students, residents, and fellows

The following qualifications are optional, but strongly desired for this position:

- Completion of a post-graduate fellowship or PhD
- Experience in providing inpatient hospital care and obstetrical care
- X-waiver DEA license

Qualified applicants should send the following information to recruit.ucdavis.edu/JPF03937

- Curriculum Vitae
- Statement of Teaching
- Statement of Research
- Statement of Contributions to Diversity, Equity and Inclusion
- List of 3-5 professional references including contact information
- Authorization for Reference Check

For full consideration, applications must be received by January 15, 2021. However, this position will remain open until filled through June 30, 2021.

UC Davis commits to inclusion excellence by advancing equity, diversity and inclusion in all that we do. We are an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer, and particularly encourage applications from members of historically underrepresented racial/ethnic groups, women, individuals with disabilities, veterans, LGBTQ community members, and others who demonstrate the ability to help us achieve our vision of a diverse and inclusive community. For the complete University of California nondiscrimination and affirmative action policy see: <http://policy.ucop.edu/doc/4000376/NondiscrimAffirmAct>.

If you need accommodation due to a disability, please contact the recruiting department.

Under Federal law, the University of California may employ only individuals who are legally able to work in the United States as established by providing documents as specified in the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. Certain positions funded by federal contracts or sub-contracts require the selected candidate to pass an E-Verify check. More information is available <http://www.uscis.gov/e-verify>.

UC Davis is a smoke- and tobacco-free campus <http://breathefree.ucdavis.edu/>