

Neurology Clinician Educator Faculty Positions at Stanford University

The Department of Neurology and Neurological Sciences at Stanford University School of Medicine (<https://med.stanford.edu/neurology/faculty/jobs.html>) is seeking board-eligible or board-certified neurologists to join the Department as a Clinical Assistant Professor, Clinical Associate Professor or Clinical Professor in the Clinician Educator line. Faculty rank will be determined by the qualifications and experience of the successful candidate.

The major criterion for appointment, reappointment and promotion for Clinician Educators is excellence in the overall mix of clinical care and clinical teaching appropriate to the programmatic needs the individual is expected to fulfill. Successful applicants will be encouraged to interact with the wide range of clinical, translational and basic science programs at Stanford.

Responsibilities will include care of general and subspecialty neurology patients, and teaching of medical students, residents and clinical fellows. For qualified candidates, opportunities are available to participate in research, quality improvement, and development of innovative care programs. Faculty will work in our hospital and clinics at Stanford Health Care (SHC), Lucile Packard Children's Hospital (LPCCH), and outreach sites in the San Francisco Bay Area.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Candidates must have an MD or equivalent. Fellowship training in a neurology subspecialty such as epilepsy, general neurology, neurohospitalist, movement disorders, neurocritical care, neuroimmunology, neuromuscular, or stroke is desirable. Necessary qualifications include board certification or eligibility (ABPN), eligibility for a California medical license, and suitable clinical and teaching experience.
