

Dear Tribal Nations and Friends of the Association of American Indian Physicians:

AAIP would like to take a moment to say thank you. You are making a difference. Your role in a healthy future for Native Americans is creating change. AAIP invites you to partner with them in reaching their mission, "To pursue excellence in Native American healthcare by promoting education in the medical disciplines, honoring traditional healing principles and restoring the balance of mind, body and spirit."

The 49th Annual Meeting for AAIP will be held on August 5-9, 2020 in Tacoma, WA. This year's conference theme is "Journey to Wellness". A few of 2020's conference topics include clinical health, cardiovascular disease, child abuse and neglect/ trauma, cancer, and how these topics relate to Native American health.

AAIP History: In 1971, AAIP was established as an educational, scientific, membership, charitable and nonprofit corporation. The values that began the program are adhered to today. AAIP currently has over 450 members and provides educational programs, health initiatives, capacity building assistance, and many other services for American Indian and Alaska Native communities. From high school to post-secondary education AAIP is identifying, recruiting, mentoring, and preparing American Indian and Alaskan Natives for success in a medical discipline. Please visit Association of American Indian Physicians website at: www.aaip.org.

Students and the 49th Annual Meeting: Undergraduate and graduate students attend a portion of the Annual Meeting called the Pre-Admission Workshop (PAW). PAW brings together AAIP sponsors, physician members, public healthcare professionals, and American Native/Alaskan Native college students. The goal of PAW is to provide students with information and skills to enroll successfully in pre-medical or medical school. Please consider sponsoring a college student's travel ($2,500) to attend the PAW.

What is your role in this year's 49th Annual Meeting? If you have supported AAIP in the past, we thank you and hope that you will consider increasing this year's level of support. AAIP offers valuable services for the medical community and needs your sponsorship. Your support places your business in front of the Native American and Alaskan Native medical community. Please take a moment to read through the various types of support. Sponsorships are tax-deductible.
