SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

The Department of Biochemistry & Molecular Genetics (www.virginia.edu/bmg) and the University of Virginia Cancer Center, one of 52 National Cancer Institute-designated Comprehensive Cancer Centers in the nation, seek to expand their cancer research faculty. We invite applicants for Assistant and Associate Professor tenure-track appointments, who address contemporary problems in cancer biology, particularly in the areas of chromosome structure, genome instability and aneuploidy. Research programs with a significant bioinformatics component will be prioritized.

Candidates must hold a Ph.D. and/or M.D. in the life sciences or in computational biology by the start date of the appointment and must have demonstrated the capacity to establish and maintain a high-quality independent research program and to attract extramural research funding. Support will include a start-up package, laboratory space, and an exceptionally interactive research environment. Clinically qualified applicants will be considered for a joint appointment in the appropriate clinical department.

To Apply:

Please visit UVA job board: <https://uva.wd1.myworkdayjobs.com/UVAJobs> and search for R00039387.

Complete and application and attach:

- A Cover Letter
- Curriculum Vitae
- Statement of research interests (two pages or less)
- A diversity statement addressing how you will enhance diversity, equity and inclusion
- A description of mentoring philosophy
- Three letters of recommendation should be submitted electronically, directly to hn6u@virginia.edu with the applicant's name in the subject heading.

The positions will remain open until filled.

***Please note that you MUST upload ALL documents into the CV/Resume box. Applications that do not contain all of the required documents will not receive full consideration. ***
