

General Urologist

The Division of Urology at Brigham and Women's Hospital is seeking to recruit a board certified/eligible urologist specializing in benign urology including General Urology. The candidate should be qualified to be appointed at the Instructor, Assistant or Associate Professor level at Harvard Medical School. Salary and academic appointment will be commensurate with training and level of experience. The candidate must demonstrate professional, academic and teaching skills in urology and possess interest in basic or clinical research.

Brigham and Women's Hospital and the Department of Surgery are committed to ensuring our diverse community feels welcome, cared for, and valued. Candidates who have experience working with a diverse range of faculty, staff and patients, and who can contribute to the climate of inclusivity are encouraged to identify their experiences in these areas.

We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

A selection committee, headed by Adam Kibel, MD, Chief of Urology, Brigham and Women's Hospital, will be reviewing all applicants. Interested candidates should submit curriculum vitae and letter of interest by email to: Gerard M. Doherty, MD, Chair, Department of Surgery, Brigham and Women's Hospital at: surgeryfacultyaffairs@bwh.harvard.edu.
