

SURGERY: TRAUMA / ACUTE CARE SURGERY / SURGICAL CRITICAL CARE

The Department of Surgery at Brigham and Women's Hospital, Division of Trauma, Burn, Surgical Critical Care and Emergency General Surgery, seek a board-certified surgeon in General Surgery and Critical Care. This position may be eligible for a part-time Clinical Instructor academic appointment at Harvard Medical School. The MD or MD/PhD candidate must demonstrate professional, academic and teaching skills in the field of trauma, emergency general surgery and surgical critical care and must be primarily interested in working in a community hospital setting. In addition, the candidate would be committed to trauma and emergency call coverage and critical care coverage.

Brigham and Women's Hospital and the Department of Surgery are committed to ensuring our diverse community feels welcome, cared for, and valued. Candidates who have experience working with a diverse range of faculty, staff and patients, and who can contribute to the climate of inclusivity are encouraged to identify their experiences in these areas.

We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

A selection committee, headed by Ali Salim, MD, Chief of Trauma, Burn, Surgical Critical Care and Emergency General Surgery, Brigham and Women's Hospital, will be reviewing all applicants. Interested candidates should submit curriculum vitae and letter of interest by email to: Gerard M. Doherty, MD, Chair, Department of Surgery, Brigham and Women's Hospital at: surgeryfacultyaffairs@bwh.harvard.edu.
