

Plastic Surgeon

The Department of Surgery's Division of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at Brigham and Women's Hospital seeks a board-certified plastic surgeon at the Instructor or Assistant Professor level. The MD would be primarily located at Brigham and Women's Hospital and would also have privileges at Brigham and Women's Faulkner Hospital. The ideal candidate will demonstrate strong academic, professional and teaching skills in a combination of oncology reconstruction, microsurgery, oncoplastics, lymphatic, transgender surgery and/or general plastic surgery. Preference will be given to individuals with fellowship training and/or formal training in research methods (Master's or PhD) who seek to establish independent research programs. The anticipated start date is Summer/Fall 2024.

Brigham and Women's Hospital and the Department of Surgery are committed to ensuring our diverse community feels welcome, cared for, and valued. Candidates who have experience working with a diverse range of faculty, staff, and patients, and who can contribute to the climate of inclusivity are encouraged to identify their experiences in these areas.

We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

A selection committee, headed by Dr. Andrea Pusic, Chief of the Division of Plastic Surgery, Brigham and Women's Hospital, will be reviewing all applicants. Interested candidates should submit curriculum vitae and letter of interest by email to: Gerard M. Doherty, M.D., Chair, Department of Surgery, Brigham and Women's Hospital at: surgeryfacultyaffairs@bwh.harvard.edu.
