Outpatient Hospice and Palliative Care Physician - Contracted

YoloCares is a non-profit hospice providing compassionate end-of-life care. We're affiliated with the California Hospice Network and committed to serving Native American communities. Our team includes dedicated nurses, case managers, and social workers.

Overview

We are currently looking for an experienced and compassionate Outpatient Hospice and Palliative Care Physician to join our team. Your main responsibility will be to provide expert medical care, symptom management, and emotional support to patients in various settings, including their homes, long-term care facilities, and other outpatient settings. As a vital member of our integrated patient care team, you will play a crucial role in ensuring that patients receive the highest level of care and comfort during their end-of-life journey, while also respecting their cultural beliefs and preferences.

Responsibilities

- Conduct comprehensive assessments of patients' medical conditions and develop individualized care plans.
- Collaborate with our interdisciplinary team to provide holistic patient care, including pain and symptom management.
- Offer emotional and psychological support to patients and their families.
- Ensure culturally sensitive care that respects the traditions and preferences of Native American patients.
- Facilitate regular care plan reviews and adjustments as needed.
- Provide ongoing education and support to the patient's family members.
- Maintain accurate and up-to-date medical records.

Qualifications

- Medical Doctor (MD) or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (DO) degree.
- Board certification in Hospice and Palliative Medicine or eligibility.
- Active and unrestricted medical license in the state of California.
- Passion for hospice and Palliative care practice.
- Strong commitment to culturally sensitive and equitable care, preference for experience with Native American heritage.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively in a team-based care setting.
- Compassion, empathy, and a deep understanding of the unique challenges faced by hospice and palliative care patients.
